

Constituent Service Fund Reform Act

HELPING RESIDENTS & COMBATING WASTE AND CORRUPTION

25%

Only a quarter of funds meant to help residents pay bills, buy groceries, or make funeral arrangements were used for their intended purpose.

Rather than provide emergency financial assistance to constituents, elected officials purchased branded t-shirts, sports tickets, calendars, and other marketing materials.

Private donations—from those seeking business with D.C. government or campaign funders who have reached their contribution limits—raise the specter of pay-to-play politics.

Establishes central, publicly-funded constituent service fund for all elected officials.

Prohibits private donations to remove even the appearance of corruption.

Expenditures must directly benefit residents. Prohibits questionable perks like sports tickets and branded items.

Empowers Chief Financial Officer to administer the program and approve expenditures.

The Constituent Service Fund Reform Act allows elected officials to meet the immediate needs of constituents while also combating waste and corruption in this important work.
